Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/undercover

December 1, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Middlesex Lunchroom, arriving there at about 8.45 a.m.

Upon leaving the Middlesex Lunchroom, Operative roamed about Town until about 3.30 p.m., and then proceeded to and located at the railroad station.

While in conversation with Danny Kenny at the railroad station, Operative learned that Mr. Kirby and some detectives were at the railroad station watching the trains for someone connected with the case. Operative made an effort to find out from Danny Kenny, whom the Detectives and Mr. Kirby were watching for, but Operative was unable to learn anything further. Operative while at the railroad station observed a State Trooper stationed in the Waiting Room, and another State Trooper stationed at the entrance.

During the evening, Operative observed Mr. Kirby and two Detectives about the station watching all outgoing trains.

At about 11.15 p.m. Operative joined Mr. DeM., and received instructions from him to proceed to New York City and discontinue.

In lieu of the above instructions, Operative boarded the 11.33 p.m. train for New York City, and upon arrival there, discontinued.
